

25th Annual JALT Hokkaido Language Teaching Conference “Hokkaido Nabe - Helping students to help themselves” Schedule

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C	Room D	Room E
Registration
9:30
10:15 — 11:00	Role of English in building a stronger school-wide academic program Marshall Smith Hirozumi Tokioka, Glen Hill & David Campbell	Literacy for the data age Johnathon John	Preparing learners for success in Academic environments abroad Yuka Maruyama & Jacob Schnickel	Social Constructivism in the language learning classroom Nicholas Yates	Sing-alongs effectively teach linking and reduction Naomi Suzuki & Goh Kawai
11:15 — 12:00	Autonomy in the Japanese context Rachael Ruegg	The necessity of substantial output in an extensive reading class Emilia Fujiyaki	Use of the target language and L1: Helping students to help themselves Brian McMillan & Damian Rivers	Gesture to communicate - a look at body language and perception Tim Blankley	CALL Room 3 CELENT - A web-based resource for elementary school teachers Hiroyuki Ishizuka & Ronald Kibler
12:00 — 1:00	Lunch Break or you can attend a presentation From 12:10 ~ 1:00
JALT Hokkaido Chapter General Meeting — Room A
1:00 — 1:30	Room A – Dr. Robert Courchene: Self-access learning and the learner Room B – Cynthia Keith: Teaching children to help themselves
1:30 — 2:30	Plenary Speakers
2:45 — 3:35	Active Skills for Communication Michael Cahill Cengage Learning K.K.	How to Present Yourself John Lecher Cambridge University Press	The communication classroom: What can be taught Hugh Graham-Mar ABAX Ltd.	Speaking of Speech Michael Hensley MacMillan Language House	Extensive reading – Citing examples of teachers' ideas of graded readers Takeshi Kamimura & Emilia Fujiyaki Pearson Longman
3:45 — 4:30	Using literature to teach language Robert Courchene	What's in a name plate? Glen Hill & David Campbell	Cooperative education and second language support Samuel Holzman & John Peloghiis	Cooperative Writing—Students helping each other write and the use of peer feedback in writing Eric Hagley and CA Edington	Fun activities for children preparing for exams - it doesn't have to be boring! Cynthia Keith